

Tickets for the Agrupació Barça Veterans Legends Match go on sale

Monday, 16 March 2009

FC Barcelona's Mini Estadi will host on Friday March 27th a legends match to celebrate the 50th Anniversary of the Agrupació Barça Veterans. FC Barcelona former players will play up against a historical European EFPA Selection, in a one-and-only opportunity to see recently retired players from FC Barcelona and other major European Clubs on the pitch again. The match has been scheduled on March 27th to coincide with the European Leagues-free weekend as international games are taking place.

Carles Rexach and Josep Palau will be coaching the FC Barcelona former player team and great players such as José M. Bakero, Julio Salinas, Guillermo Amor, Miquel Àngel Nadal, Àngel Cuéllar, Robert Fernández, Esteve Fradera and Juan Carlos Rodríguez have already confirmed their participation. On the European side, EFPA (Sports Group of European Former Football Players Associations), coached by Arrigo Sacchi and Josep Moratalla, has put together a Selection of high-profile former players to represent a great number of European countries with the likes of Emilio Butragueño, Lotar Matthäus, Patrick Kluivert, Steve Mcmanan or John Lauridsen.

The official presentation of the event has been scheduled for Monday March 23rd, when the final list of confirmed players and other details about the match will be disclosed. The event is organised by the Agrupació Barça Veterans and EFPA with the support of FC Barcelona, Ajuntament de Barcelona, Generalitat de Catalunya and Torra + Portella.

Ticket prices

The tickets to the match will go on sale tomorrow Tuesday through La Caixa's online ticket service "Servicaixa", from 16.00h. Tickets will be 10€ for the Grandstand area and 5€ for the rest of the stadium. Furthermore, buying two 5€ tickets you get a 50% off. Children up to 7 years old will have free access. As of March 25th, tickets will also be available at FC Barcelona's box office with a 20% off Grandstand tickets for club members.