

EFPA Vicepresident Josep Moratalla attends Homeless World Cup in Milan

Tuesday, 08 September 2009

Former FC Barcelona player and EFPA Sports Vice-President, Josep Moratalla travelled to Milan yesterday to attend the Italian edition of the Homeless World Cup.

Together with Polish former international, Dariusz Dziekanowski and Italian legendary coach Arrigo Sacchi, they attended the first day of competition to support the Homeless World Cup and promote football as a means of social integration.

During his visit, Josep Moratalla had the opportunity to meet Spain's Team and did the kick-off to the Spain-Lithuania game which the Spaniards lost 6-2.

Dariusz Diekanowski, EFPA Board Member and President of PSBP, was invited by Homeless World Cup and accepted to be coach of the Polish Team of Homeless Players.

Arrigo Sacchi, EFPA Coach, also wanted to support the Homeless World Cup and attended on Monday afternoon and did the kick-off to the Italy- Luxemburg game.
